

Training Enrollment Portal

A White-Labeled Training Delivery Solution

Providing your employees, partners and customers with high-quality, certified training is key to driving success across your entire ecosystem. But it's not always easy. Shyft Global Services eases the administration and management of training delivery by empowering your employees, training your partners and helping your customers derive the most value from your products — all on your behalf.

---

Enable Your Employees

Give your employees the best training experience possible with an all-in-one solution for OEM-authorized content — branded under your company identity. Bring employees up to speed quickly and keep them educated as your product line and the technology landscape advances.

- ▶ Deliver internally developed training and/or authorized OEM training
  - ▶ Customize your training portfolio based on employee groups
  - ▶ Choose from flexible delivery formats, including virtual, instructor-led, On Demand and self-paced

Empower Your Channel Partners

Activate your channel partners' training and certification portfolios by using a co-branded training enrollment portal. Simplify setup, fulfillment and operational complexities associated with training with an all-in-one solution for centralizing enrollment of your authorized training content.

- ▶ Co-brand your training portal with partners to offer to their end-user base
- ▶ Promote specific training to the partner to grow their sales
- ▶ Simplify the process with out-of-the-box, custom-designed solutions
- ▶ Access authorized training content in one centralized location

Grow End-User Product Adoption

With a training enrollment portal, you can ensure your end-users are using authorized training content to optimize the success of product adoption. This training portal is cloud based, easy to set up and very customizable. There are no required internal investments into infrastructure, meaning your portal can go live in little to no time.

Simplify Your Training Operations

With easy course-management options, design customization down to specific business requirements and real-time training insights, this portal provides everything your employees, partners and customers need. They can browse and select relevant courses and create learning plans according to chosen business priorities. Through your Shyft training enrollment portal(s), you can give access to whoever needs it – whenever, set up a portal for a dedicated partner and customize the content to align to business needs.

Shyft's Training Enrollment Portal Provides:

- ▶ White-label customization, so you can deliver content under your brand, or co-brand with a partner or customer
  - ▶ Simplified access with a dedicated URL
  - ▶ Customized training options
  - ▶ Easy management and administration for content, users and training budget
